1 Purpose of the Nomination Board

The Shareholders' Nomination Board (the "Nomination Board") of Kojamo Plc (the "Company") is the shareholders' body with the responsibility for preparing the proposals to the Annual General Meeting and if needed to the Extraordinary General Meeting concerning the election and remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors and the remuneration of the members of the Board Committees. The main responsibility of the Nomination Board is to ensure that the Board of Directors and its members have a sufficient level of expertise, knowledge and experience for the needs of the Company.

The Nomination Board complies with the legislation in force and other applicable regulation, such as the stock exchange rules and the Finnish Corporate Governance Code.

2 Appointment and Composition of the Nomination Board

The Nomination Board consists of representatives nominated by the three largest shareholders of the Company and in addition, the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company participates in the work of the Nomination Board as an expert member. The Chairman of the Board of Directors does not take part in the decision-making of the Nomination Board.

The right to nominate the members representing the shareholders shall be vested annually with the three shareholders of the Company representing the largest number of the votes of all shares in the Company on the first business day of each September. The right to nominate members shall be based on the Company's shareholders' register held by Euroclear Finland Ltd unless otherwise determined due to notifications by holders of nominee-registered shares or notifications regarding disclosure obligations. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall request the three largest shareholders to each nominate one member to the Nomination Board. In case two shareholders own an equal amount of shares and votes and representatives of both shareholders cannot be appointed to the Nomination Board, the decision shall be made by drawing lots.

Should a shareholder who has divided its ownership e.g. into a number of funds or group companies and has an obligation to disclose changes in its shareholding under the Finnish Securities Markets Act, or the holder of nominee-registered shares wish to have its shares in a nominee register or shares subject to disclosure obligation be taken into account when determining the right to nominate members, it must present a credible report of the number of these shares on the first business day of September preceding the Annual General Meeting. This report shall be delivered to the Chairman of the Board of Directors at the latest on the fourth business day of September.

Should a shareholder not wish to exercise its right to appoint a member, the right shall be transferred to the next largest shareholder who would otherwise not have had that right.

The first meeting of each term of the Nomination Board shall be convened by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, and the representative of the largest shareholder shall be elected Chairman of the Nomination Board unless the Nomination Board expressly decides otherwise. The Chairman of the Board of Directors cannot act as the Chairman of the Nomination Board. The following meetings shall be convened by the Chairman of the Nomination Board.

When the Nomination Board has been elected and the Chairman of the Nomination Board has been appointed, the Company shall publish the composition in a stock exchange release.

A shareholder has the right to change its representative during the term by notifying the Chairman of the Nomination Board. Should a shareholder no longer be amongst the ten largest shareholders of the Company, the appointed representative of such shareholder shall resign, unless otherwise unanimously decided by the other members. The Nomination Board may appoint a new member to replace a prematurely vacated seat, and the members of the Nomination Board must decide on replacements if the number of members decreases to less than two during the term. The Nomination Board must offer the vacant seats to such shareholders of the Company who have not appointed a member to the Nomination Board in the order of votes based on their shareholdings. The order of votes based on shareholding is determined based on the ownership information in the Company's shareholders' register on the day of the nomination request.

The Nomination Board shall be established for the time being, until the general meeting decides otherwise. The term of the members of the Nomination Board expires annually when the next Nomination Board has been appointed.

3 Duties of the Nomination Board

Considering the diversity principles of the Board of Directors, the duties of the Nomination Board are:
